

Executive Department
State of Idaho

The Office of the Governor
Proclamation

State Capitol
Boise

WHEREAS, many civic bodies, service organizations and government departments of our state recognize the great voluntary humanitarian service rendered to Idaho hospitals by Junior Auxiliary Volunteers; and

WHEREAS, Idaho hospitals have set aside the week of June 16 through June 20, 2003, to recognize and express gratitude for the helping hand Junior Volunteers extend to medical professionals and health care administrative personnel in ministering to the sick; and

WHEREAS, through its service, this organization of dedicated teenage volunteers enriches the lives of Idaho citizens;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DIRK KEMPTHORNE, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim the week of June 16 through June 20, 2003, to be in Idaho, and I urge all Idahoans to give grateful recognition, show consideration, and express appreciation to our teenage volunteers for the contributions they make to their communities in ministering to the sick through the junior volunteer programs and to commend these young citizens and their sponsors for a job well done.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this twenty-eight day of May in the year of our Lord two-thousand and three and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred twenty-seventh and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred thirteenth.
